A Number of Cars Completely Demo ished.

The Californ our of Militia Gen-Cause of the Accident.

Coshderon, Ohlo, Aug 16 A construction train, with a large number of workmen on board, collided with some empty cars on a skieng, last evening, six miles north of here, at a point known as Richason's gravel pit. Six person were crushed to death and fifteen others terribly injured. The killed are Frank Galli, William Rafferty, John Barry, Joseph Bycroft, of Burlington, Vt., aged twenty-sight, John Halliger and John Flyan. The cars were being pushed alsead of the engine. The greater number of the workmen were seated in the first and second cars. Ten of the cars were piled in a mass of debria, and beneath this the poer fellows were crushed. It required two hours to extricate some of the dead and injured. An open twitch caused the accident chicado, Aug. 16. the Eric line, in Chicago, which is the old Chicago and Abantic, have been or hered on a strike. To a reporter a representative of the switchmen said "We I are waiting to hear the word from Grand and the lines running into Chicago. The strike may not reach, Chicago for a week eyet, but unless the length of the strike are in the East be yranted, all great railway lines will its tend up within tendays." The statement of Grand Master Wilkinson, of the Order of Treinmen, that the trainmen would assist the switchmen if the strike of the latter be shown to have been authorized by the sustends officers, is regarded as agnificant, and especially because of the bact that the trainmen and awitchmen have been mortal enemies ever since the fight on the north-western road Wilkinson left this morting for Buffalo It is evident, further, that the conductors are in negotiation with the trainmen, and starting developments may be looked for in this cort rection

Cleveland's Mis In four districts organizations have

In four districts organizations have already been perfected. Before September 1, their organization will have been extended so as to include at least twenty-five out of the thirty districts in the city Tammany is likely to be ugly, and this anti-Tammany organization is sure to be determined. Mr. Cleveland, instead of doing those things which he possitiy might have done to prevent these antagonisms, has, with curious fatuity, done something to increase them. When Grower Cleveland was Governor, he gained respect and admiration, because he seemed to be willing to antagonize Tammany Hall. That body could not centrol him. He even went so far as to indicate that he was disgusted with the attempts of Tammany to dominate the Democratic party, and he wrote one letter in which he asked Mr. Kelley, who was the ruler of the organization, to send Mr. Grady, who was as prominent in Tammany councils at that time, as Bourke Cookran is now, to the rear. Very much of the strength which Cleveland has gained with the better element of the Democratic party throughout the State has been due to his opposition to Tammany Hall and its methods. Since his nomination at Chicago, Mr Cleveland seems to have changed his views regarding Tammany Hall.

"The ould man's clear grit all through," said his invariable culogists, the troopers. But there would have been no dear old man left to them, as Ellis and Scott had borne testimony, had it not been for Brewster s daring charge into the midst of the red warriors. It was his built that laid low the savage brandsher of the kinfe just as he would have gashed the brave old major's throat; but "White Wolf" had counted his last come and stripped of his finery, lay coup and, stripped of his finery, lay stiffening on the prairie a painted corpse, awaiting funeral honors at the hands of his howling comrades.

Every soldier's heart rejoiced that it was Brewster who saved the major's life, for Brewster, of all the subalberns, was first favorite among the rank and file. And as for Ellis, though he was the relative to the major has been subalberned. were therefore, from the soldier point of view, the men most entitled to the hon-

Finally Rolfe had burst out with:

"Well, Colonel Farquhar, I'm acting in this manner for the honor of the regi-ment to which I've been attached through thick and thin for nearly a quar-ter of a century. I heard you were just sending forward a report highly com-mending these two men, and I believed

"Permit me so conduct this matter, Captain Rolfe" said Farquhar, stretching forth a restraining hand and check-ing the captain as he rose with another question on his lips. Rolfe with almost any other man might possibly have persisted. He knew Furquhar, however gentle courteous might be his manner he could come down hard upon those who crossed him. So, with evident effort, be held his tongue, but remained standing. "Be his torgue, but remaines standing. What herve the fellow had, to be sure, to he there "playing possim" just as though he were stone dead and ripe for scalping, and so tempt his assailants out from the cover of the ravine, and then never the cover of the ravine, and then haver stir until they were so close he simply couldn't miss, and so "got in his deadly work." Brewster and Ellis were the major's avengers, the two troopers who had dealt out death to the foe, and who should be stripped of their high estate As Dr. Holden stood there listening to the accusations and arguments brought forward by Captain Polfs, he could not or other had occasionally been brought to his ears at Rolfe's expense. Even so conservative and loyal a fellow as Warren, the adjutant, had once summarized his character in forcible terms. "I remarks this table." spect his ability, said he, but damn his egotism. Rolfe in this regiment is just like the one juror who said that viction but for the eleven blooming idiots who held out for acquitual." Relfe was a man of such intensity of opinion and purpose that once having made up his own mind as to what some lee ought to do, he deemed it not only a right but a duty to instruct the other party, no matter what that party's rank or station might be; and this was practically what Rolfe had been doing to his colonel ever since Holden ap-be has time or thought to mitter, to. liked everything about him, and told the metant death seems inevitable.
